Old Mother Hubbard
Went to the Cupboard,
To give her poor Dog a Bone;
But when she came there,
The Cupboard was bare,
And so the poor Dog got none.

She went to the Baker's

To buy him some Bread;

And when she came back,

The Dog was—dead!

She went to the Undertaker's

To get him a Coffin ; ——

And when she came back,—

The Dog was—laughing.

She went to the Market

To buy him some Tripe ;

And when she came back

He was smoking his Pipe.

She went to the Alehouse
To get him some Beer;
And when she came back
The Dog sat on a Chair.

She went to a Tavern

For white Wine and red ;

And when she return'd,

The Dog stood on his head.

She went to the Fruiterer's
To buy him some Fruit;
And when she came back,
He was playing the Flute.

She went to the Tailor's

To buy him a Coat ;

When she came back

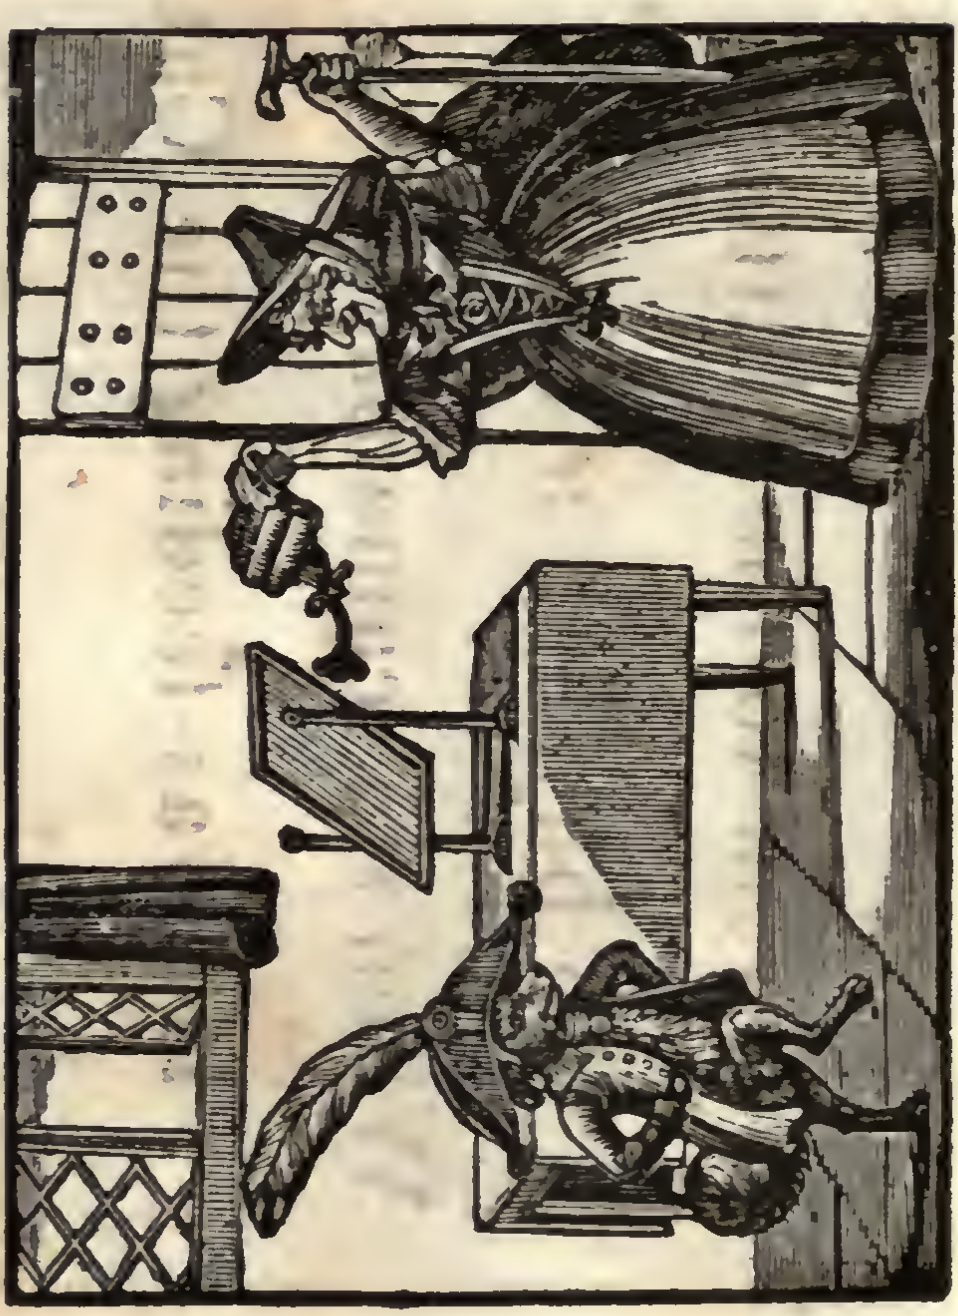
He was riding a Goat.

She went to the Hatter's

To buy him a Hat;

When she came back

He was feeding the Cat.



She went to the Barber's
To buy him a Wig ;
When she came back,
He was dancing a jig.

She went the Shoe-shop

To buy him nice Shoes ;

But when she came back,

He sat reading the News.

She went to the Sempstress
To buy him some Linen ;
When she came back
The Dog was spinning.

She went to the Hosier's
To buy him neat Hose ;
And when she came back
He was drest in his clothes.

The Dame made a fine curtsy,

The Dog made a low bow ;

The Dame said, Your servant, Sir,

The Dog said, Bow-wow.
